Fee Payment Method

FOR NEW STUDENTS

The academic year for all classes, except F5 & F7, consists of 11 months from September to July. F5/F7 have 9 months.

California School does not take semi-annual fees, as is the practice elsewhere. All School fees must be paid monthly to the General Office or paid into the School bank account no. 40500110026 (Standard Chartered Bank) by the 18th day of the previous month.

New students need to pay their School fee in the following manner:

September 2010 fee +
$80 registration fee +
$890 Last Fee Deposit

EXAMPLE 1;

If a new student applies for P5 today he/she will have to pay:

Sept 2010 fee	= $1400
Registration	= $80
Last Fee Deposit	= $890
Total	$2370

From October 2011 to June 2012 you need to pay $1400 before the end of the previous month. For July fees you only need to pay $510. LFD can only be used for paying part of last fee in July and it is not refundable.

EXAMPLE 2;

If a new student applies for F6 today he/she will have to pay:

Sept 2010 fee	= $3000
Registration	= $200
Last Fee Deposit	= $890
Total	$4090

From October 2011 to June 2012 you need to pay monthly $3000 before the end of the previous month. For July fees you only need to pay $2110. LFD can only be used for paying part of last fee in July and it is not refundable.
